UP STAIRS OVER GERMAN NATIONAL BARK. Business Office—No. 13 Madison Streat. MENDACITY. The New York Tribune, with grea prelences to honest frankness and fairness, has really become one of the most unscrupulous journals in the country,especially unserupulous, too, as to what it states in respect of matters to misrepit states in respect of matters to misrepresent which to the people is not only disgraceful but criminal. To state or to and disingenuous Editor is a disgrace to ment to-day for $451,706,590 in coin, in namuate what is false, or to use a fraudulent argument, in order to impute evil his profession, just as much as a tricky payment for the interest due on 1,405 up lent argument, in order to impute evil nestiforcing in warr in to his and the motives to a public officer and impugu his conduct as unjustifiable, and so to influence the people against him, In a matter of the greatest public moment, is a very grave offense, and a very dishonorable, despicable and detestable one, although such things have become so common as to pass at most unnoticed. It seems almost like making a mountain sut of a mole-hill, to treat such misdeneanors as of any serious importance, and express any indignation at them; and yet there are few things that are

For ex-SIGKLES, has exercised arbitrary power smple, under the head of "Public without justification or excuse. Not Opinion King" it thus betrays both its good; nor do we write to flatter the friends and only so, -not only did his oath compat paternity and maternity: him to do it, but it is ridiculous for the rany of the Tribune to gabble about the transfer of an officer from one post or New Orleans, whatever stands recorded command to another, being an set of in his work of particleation in the busiarbitrary power. No officer has any nees of the murder of the martyr Doetle. Since that time he has been busy repentright to any particular post or station. Since that time he has been busy repenting that edict of abdication, and the American people have been equally vigmand his regiment, and to go with it wherever he is ordered. The President screamed it into his seat. A few days since he screamed it into the ears of a still doubtful tiet, and, considering all his antocolours, it was a very support to the proper in th dents, it was a very poor business.
